

Stowe School is a co-educational, full boarding and day school for pupils from 13-18 with a Christian ethos

Statement of Boarding Principles and Practice

Stowe aims to provide an all-round education of the highest standard, supporting Stoics in their passage to adulthood. Confidence and tolerance of others flourish in a close community. Our supportive family atmosphere and Christian ethos encourage pupils to develop a last sense of moral, social and spiritual responsibility, and our House system provides a caring pastoral environment in which Stoics learn to consider the rights and needs of others. Houseparents, Matrons and House Tutors work together to take responsibility for the educational, social and moral welfare of pupils in the context of Stowe's boarding community.

We believe that we should prepare pupils for a world that is changing faster than ever before. We seek to equip Stoics with the skills, resilience and ideas they need to adapt and thrive. Stowe's inclusive community aims to transform how Stoics are prepared to
