

My time at Stowe was a transformative journey that nurtured both my creative and academic aspirations. It empowered me to reach new heights, ultimately guiding me to successfully apply and attend Cambridge.

Miss Charlotte Bird (Lyttleton 18)

My first winter the lakes froze over and we were allowed to go skating - it was terrifying!

Lady Suffield (née Emma Williams, Stanhope 79)

The house and grounds are forever in the landscape of my mind.

Miss Amy Chamier (Stanhope 81)

I was in one of the first girls' years. We had 30 girls and 500 boys! The freedom that Stowe have is to be ourselves is so magical.

Mrs Gabi Kennedy (née Zoghbi, Stanhope 81)

I suspect the grounds at Stowe designed by Capability Brown were in part an inspiration for my second career in garden design.

Mrs Sarah Heaton (née Mounsey, Stanhope 84)

Scoring a try for the wrong team when the girls took on the boys (boys were three-legged) at rugby. Being the first girl to play for a Stowe cricket team. Being the first OS granddaughter to be Head Girl. Being the first girl in Mr Pedder's A-Level Chemistry Set.

Mrs Vanessa Johnson (née Morison, Stanhope 84)

Trying to get a Cello case full of beer up the steps in Chatham and being stopped by the Housemaster because it looked so heavy - he offered to carry it for me!

Mrs Amanda Ransom (née Wyatt, Stanhope 87)

Things I look back and smile about are the incredible food fights in the dining room and being caught by a master whilst abseiling down one of the Temples with a friend during a free period.

Mrs Sarah Sullivan (née Hichens, Nugent 90)

My English and theatre studies teacher:
He entered the classroom by climbing through the window. It always made me laugh.

Miss Cressida Chester-Read (Stanhope/Lyttelton 94)

I vividly remember Jerusalem belting out of the organ on a Sunday morning bringing broad smiles to everyone's faces.

Mrs Verity Richardson (née Taylor, Nugent 03)

As a first 6th Form boarder for Queen's House, I got to sing for Her Majesty The Queen.

Miss Emma-Claire Bailey (Queen's 09)
